EDIT PREFERENCES

To make the best possible suggestions, Smart Planner needs to know which terms you plan to attend and how many units you're planning to take each term. The system initially chooses default terms & units based on your progress so far. Please edit these values if they are not correct. For the distant future, just make your best guess. You can change it later.

The screenshot shows the homepage of CaliforniaColleges.edu. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links: Home, Career Planning, High School Planning, College Planning, Financial Aid Planning, and Your Portfolio. Below this is a section for Parents/Guardians with a list of resources: A Parent's Guide to College Applications, View the college planning timeline, See grade level activities for middle and high school, Find out how to pay for college, Explore financial aid calculators, and Support your child academically. To the right of this is a 'Your Portfolio' section with links to Career Planning, High School Planning, College Planning, Your Profile, and Your Journal. Below the Parents/Guardians section is a 'Discover How To...' section with four buttons: Help Your Child Assess their Work Values, Help Your Child Explore Careers, Help Your Child Explore Colleges, and Help Your Child Explore Majors. At the bottom, there are two promotional banners: one for Cal Grants (Free cash for college) and one for i can afford college.com. The right sidebar contains a 'Resources' section with links to College Choice, Scholarships, Know the Steps, College Skills & Tips, Insights on Programs & Majors, Career Planning Resources, College Planning Resources, and Resources for Educators. Below that is a 'Your College & University Options in California' section with links to California Community Colleges, California State University, University of California, and Independent California Colleges & Universities. At the very bottom right is a 'Try the College Guide mobile app for High School 10th-12th graders!' section with a 'Click here to Try' link and an app icon.
